1985. Bogotá. A pall of paranoid insecurity hangs over the capital city, where tailor Salvador leads a solitary life. His quiet routine is shattered by the arrival of Isabel, the new elevator operator in his building. The two embark on an awkward love affair until jealousy and suspicion (as family members start disappearing) begin to cloud his judgment. Spanish with subtitles.

Tickets available July 7. Advance registration is recommended.

Doors open at 5:45 PM. Open seats are released at 6:15 PM, based on availability.

This screening is part of the Chicago International Film Festival's 2025 Summer Screenings Program.
